

Rural Regeneration in the Wakefield District

Wednesday 3 March 2010

The Kingswood Suite, Town Hall, Wakefield

9.30am to 12 noon

Although the Wakefield District is often viewed as urban, over 20% of the district's population live in Rural Areas and over 70% of the district's area is defined as rural.

This free event offers an opportunity to:

- Hear from the Commission of Rural Communities about rural policy at the national level and the work of the CRC.
- Hear from the experience of Bradford City Council and how they adopted a 'think rural' approach and received Beacon Council status for improving rural services and empowering communities.
- Other speakers include representatives from;
 - West Yorkshire Passenger Transport Executive (Metro)
 - Business Link
 - Rural Action Yorkshire
 - Housing and Regeneration Projects in the district's Rural Coalfield

Have your say

....about the opportunities and issues within Rural parts of the Wakefield District.

Help us

....to ensure the Wakefield district maximises the benefits from its Rural assets and develops a sound Rural Strategy.

This event is aimed at those living and working in rural areas, but also for policy and decision makers whose roles may have an impact on rural areas.

To Book

....simply complete the attached form and return it to the address given.

Contact:

Roger Kojan, Policy Manager,
Strategic Housing and Economic Development
Tel: (01924) 305822 or email: rkojan@wakefield.gov.uk

Rural Regeneration in the Wakefield District

Wednesday 3 March 2010

The Kingswood Suite, Town Hall, Wakefield

9.30am to 12 noon

I am able to attend

I am unable to attend

Name:
Job title:
Organisation:
Address:
Telephone number:
Email:
Dietary requirements:
Access requirements:

Please return this booking form by Friday 26 February 2010 via:

Fax: (01924) 305803 or

Email: rkojan@wakefield.gov.uk or

Post: Wakefield Council, Regeneration Services, Room D23, Newton Bar, PO Box 92, Wakefield WF1 1XS.

For further information please telephone: Roger Kojan (01924) 305822